COLLEGE OF EDUCATION MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the College of Education at San Jose State University is to prepare educators who have the knowledge, skills, dispositions and ethics that ensure equity and excellence for all students in a culturally diverse, technologically complex, global community.

DEPARTMENT OF SPECIAL EDUCATION MISSION STATEMENT

The Department of Special Education prepares professionals to be effective educators, leaders in the field, and lifelong learners. We accomplish this goal in collaboration with other departments and community partners. Together we promote equity and excellence in our curricula and instruction by infusing evidence based best practices endorsed nationally.

Knowledge Base

This course is designed to address the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing requirement that new teachers or Interns be provided university support while in the teacher preparation program. Each Intern holds an “on-the-job-training” teacher position that requires coursework in the area in which they are teaching and support from a University Supervisor and from a district/school appointed Support Provider. Research from studies by Billingsley, Boe, the New Teacher Project and the Department of Education provided evidence that teacher support in the first years on the job is correlated for some groups with teacher retention in the job.

California Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CCTC) Program Standards

Program Standard 5: Assessment of Students

The program provides opportunities for candidates to acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to assess students in a comprehensive manner within the breadth of the credential authorization. Each candidate understands and uses multiple sources of information in order to participate in progress monitoring and in decision making regarding eligibility and services. The program provides candidates with the knowledge and skill to assess students from diverse backgrounds and varying language, communication, and cognitive abilities. The program provides opportunities for using both formal and informal assessments to evaluate students' needs and strengths for the purpose of making accommodations, modifications, instructional decisions and ongoing program improvements. The program provides the opportunities for each candidate to demonstrate the knowledge of required statewide assessments and local, state and federal accountability systems.

Program Standard 13: Curriculum and Instruction of Students with Disabilities

The program provides opportunity for candidates to demonstrate the ability to develop, implement, adapt, modify, and evaluate a variety of pedagogical approaches to instruction, including instructional sequences, unit and lesson plans, that provide students with disabilities with equitable access to the content and experiences found in the state-approved core curriculum. Candidates acquire and demonstrate strategies and best practices to develop differentiated lessons and instructional sequences that are appropriate for individuals with diverse strengths and needs in a variety of educational environments. Candidates must be able to apply these skills as they pertain to their specific area of specialization and credential authorizations across age and grade levels.

Description of Course

This course is designed for Interns and who have just been hired by a school district, non-public school or county offices of education to teach students with disabilities. EDSE 105 is taken in the first semester in the Intern Program, and is part of the Collaborative Intern Program for the Preliminary Education Specialists Instruction in Mild to Moderate Disabilities, Moderate to Severe Disabilities and Early Childhood Special Education. This course consists of the following:

- Support, observations and feedback from a university supervisor
- Self-Assessment
- Induction Plan development and evaluation
- Journal Assignment
- Final Summary of your teaching experience in this Intern teaching assignment

The focus of EDSE 105 is to provide assistance to the new Intern in the development of an educational program that includes; instructional strategies and lesson planning, writing IEPs and participation in the IEP meeting; and establishing effective classroom arrangements and positive learning environments. The University Supervisor observes the Intern teaching over the semester and they meet to discuss feedback from the observations and any support that the Intern needs.

Course Requirements

EDSE 105 Seminars

Seminars are held on campus in the beginning, in the middle and at the end of the course. Guidelines for the course, the weekly Journal assignment, and the development of an Induction Plan are reviewed in the first session, a discussion and “check-in” about how the first year is progressing takes place in the second seminar, and Interns present their Final Summary of the semester in the last seminar.

Intern Candidate’s Self-Assessment

The Intern completes a Self-Assessment that will assist the Support Provider and the SJSU supervisor with information about the support needed by the Intern. This Self-Assessment asks the Intern to identify the areas of greatest concern in the new job, his/her teaching strengths, and the greatest challenges. The Intern expresses the type of support that will be the most helpful from the Support Provider and the SJSU advisor. A copy of the completed Self-Assessment is submitted to the SJSU supervisor during the EDSE 105 course, which is taken in the first semester of the Intern program.

Induction Plan

In EDSE 105, the Intern completes a Self-Assessment, identifying the areas of concern about this new job. He/she develops the Induction Plan with input from the SJSU Supervisor, and the Support Provider. Three goals are developed in the Induction Plan that address the areas of concern and the challenges, and are the focus of the first year in the Intern Program. Predictions of activities for meeting the goals are indicated in the plan, and the three individuals sign the plan. A copy of the plan is put into the Department of Special Education file (in room 204 of Sweeney hall), and a copy is attached to the Final Summary at the end of the semester.

Return the completed Induction Plan to the Department office (SH 204) by October 6th at 5pm (be sure to make a copy for yourself).

Journal Assignment

At the end of each week (or by midnight on Saturday night), submit a Journal page to your University Supervisor that is attached to an email. Guidelines for the journal entry are attached to this syllabus. You will summarize the week in your classroom or on the job, summarize progress towards the goals on the Induction Plan and present the most pressing challenges this week.

Final Summary of your Teaching Assignment

Write a 2-3 page summary of the whole semester that relates to your work as an Education Specialist. Include your successes, new activities learned, and the challenges. Attach a paper copy of each Journal Entry with the Final Summary. Present the final summary in a small group in the last seminar, and turn in this assignment on that date. (December 7, 2017)

University Supervisor Meetings

You will be assigned a University Supervisor who will visit you in your class/school over the semester. Meet with the Supervisor to discuss feedback about your teaching and the job and to ask questions related to your work. The University Supervisor will provide written feedback to you at the end of the visit. If he/she has concerns, an "Improvement Plan" will be developed by at least mid-semester that will include the nature of the problem and the objectives and activities with criteria for the Intern to make the necessary changes.

Teaching Evaluation

The University Supervisor will evaluate your performance on the Directed Teaching Evaluation and 50% of the total ratings is needed to receive Credit by the end of the semester.

Accommodations

If you need course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability, or if you need special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, please make an appointment with me as soon as possible, or see me during office hours. Presidential Directive 97-03 requires that students with disabilities register with DRC to establish a record of their disability.

Academic Integrity

Your own commitment to learning, as evidenced by your enrollment at San Jose State University, and the University's Academic Integrity Policy requires you to be honest in all your academic course work. Faculty members are required to report all infractions to the Office of Judicial Affairs. The policy on academic integrity can be found at http://sa.sjsu.edu/judicial_affairs/index.html

Improvement Plan

If there are concerns about the Intern's teaching, dispositions, connections with students, communication with others in the school setting or parents, or with professional conduct, the University Supervisor will hold a discussion with the candidate about feedback and recommendations. If changes are not observed by mid semester, an Improvement Plan will be developed that will outline the problem, objectives and/or activities to make improvements, the person responsible, criteria to meet the objective (what will positive changes look like?), and the deadline. The Candidate, Master Teacher and/or Support Provider and the SJSU Supervisor signs the plan when it is developed. If the Candidate does not meet the criteria, he/she may not receive credit (CR) in the course.
