Course Description

This course examines strategies for comprehensive assessment of students from diverse backgrounds, including those with a variety of language and cognitive skills, for the purpose of making instructional decisions. This course has required field experiences and an emphasis on developing effective communication practices and collaborative partnerships.

Knowledge Base

The philosophy of the specialist credential program in moderate/severe disabilities at San Jose State University is based on current, best practices in the field that include the assumption that students with moderate/severe disabilities are best educated with their peers in neighborhood schools and when included in general education classrooms with the support necessary to be successful. The foundation for coursework and fieldwork experiences required in this course utilize the theories and research-based practices advocated by Lou Brown et al. (1991), Wayne Sailor et al. (1989), Susan Stainback and William Stainback (1992), Michael Wehmeyer (2003), and Diane Browder et al. (2007). An emphasis is placed on person-centered and family-centered planning, general education content standards based assessment and curriculum, community-based assessment and instruction, and assisting students in building social networks, self-determination skills, and personal advocacy skills.

Learning Outcomes (Required) and Course Goals (Optional)

This course is intended to assist students to meet the competencies specified in the following CCTC Education Specialist Program Standards, Moderate / Severe Specialty Standards, and Teaching Performance Expectations:

Program Standard 4: Effective Communication and Collaborative Partnerships

The program provides instruction in communicating, collaborating and consulting effectively with (1) individuals with disabilities and their parents, and primary caregivers, (2) general/special education teachers, and co-teachers, related service personnel, and administrators, (3) trans-disciplinary teams including but not limited to multi-tiered intervention strategies, Section 504, IEP/IFSP/ITP. The program provides opportunities for the candidate to establish and work in partnerships to design, implement, and evaluate appropriate, integrated service based on individual student needs. The program informs candidates of the importance of communicating effectively with the business community, public and non-public agencies to provide the cohesive delivery of services, and bridge transitional stages across the life span for all learners.

Program Standard 5: Assessment of Students

The program provides opportunities for candidates to acquire the knowledge and skills necessary to assess students in a comprehensive manner within the breadth of the credential authorization. Each candidate understands and uses multiple sources of information in order to participate in progress monitoring and in decision-making regarding eligibility and services. The program provides candidates with the knowledge and skill to assess students from diverse backgrounds and varying language, communication, and cognitive abilities. The program provides opportunities for using both formal and informal assessments to evaluate students' needs and strengths for the purpose of making accommodations, modifications, instructional decisions, and on-going program improvements. The program provides the opportunities for each candidate to demonstrate knowledge of required statewide assessments and local, state and federal accountability systems.

Program Standard 10: Preparation to Teach English Language Learners

The program provides candidates opportunities to learn the purposes, goals, and content of the adopted instructional program for the effective teaching and support of English learners; and candidates understand the local and school organizational structures and resources designed to meet English learner students' needs.

Candidates learn about state and federal legal requirements for the placement and instruction of English learners, and ethical obligations for teaching English learners. Candidates are provided with multiple, systematic opportunities to demonstrate knowledge and application of pedagogical theories, principles, and practices for (a) English Language Development leading to comprehensive literacy in English; and (b) for the development of academic language, comprehension and knowledge in the subjects of the curriculum, making grade-appropriate or advanced curriculum content comprehensible to English learners.

Candidates learn how to implement an instructional program that facilitates English language acquisition and development by effectively using materials, methods, and strategies so that students acquire listening, speaking, reading and writing skills in English in order to progress to the grade level reading/language arts program for English speakers. Candidates have opportunities to acquire knowledge of linguistic development, first and second language acquisition, and how first language literacy connects to second language development. Candidates acquire and demonstrate the ability to use initial, formative, and summative assessment information to diagnose students' language abilities, and to develop lessons that promote students' access to and achievement in the state-adopted academic content standard. Candidates learn how cognitive, pedagogical and individual factors affect students' language acquisition.

Program Standard 15: Field Experiences in a Broad Range of Service Delivery Options

The program will ensure that candidates have planned experiences and/or interaction with the full range of the service delivery system, the providers of such services, and parents and families, including experiences in general education. The experiences must reflect the full diversity of grades/ages, federal disability categories and the continuum of special education services outlined in the specific credential authorization. The experiences are planned from the beginning of the program to include experience in general education, experiences with parents and families, and experiences with a broad range of service delivery options leading to an extended culminating placement in which the candidate works toward assuming full responsibility for the provision of services in the specific credential authorization and is of sufficient duration for the candidate to demonstrate the teacher performance expectation for special educators. The culminating placement may be in any school, agency or program as defined in Education Code Sections 56031, 56360, and 56361 for the purpose of providing special education services.

M/S Standard 1: Learning Characteristics of Individuals with Moderate/Severe Disabilities

The program provides opportunities for each candidate to demonstrate knowledge of disability characteristics, and the educational and psychosocial implications of these characteristics for students identified with moderate/severe/profound mental retardation, physical health impairments, other health impairments, traumatic brain injury, deaf-blind, multiple disabilities, emotional disturbance and autism spectrum disorders, while determining the implications of these characteristics for service delivery.

M/S Standard 3: Developing Social Interaction Skills and Facilitating Social Context

Each candidate collaborates with others to facilitate each student's ability to effectively communicate and increase the extent and variety of social interactions to achieve and expand meaningful social relationships across all settings.

M/S Standard 4: Assessment, Program Planning and Instruction

Each candidate demonstrates the ability to utilize person-centered/family-centered planning and strengths-based, functional/ecological assessment across classroom and non-classroom contexts to lead their students' meaningful participation in core, standards-based curriculum, life skills curriculum, wellness curriculum, and progress toward IEP goals and objectives. The instructional plans are responsive to the unique needs of the student and requirements of the core curriculum, and are implemented and adjusted systematically to promote maximum learning and academic achievement. Each candidate is able to develop and implement systematic, evidence-based instructional strategies to teach skills within school, community and work settings, including assessment sources that integrate alternative statewide assessments, formative assessments, and formal and informal assessment results. Each candidate is able to utilize assessment data from multiple sources to develop effective programs and guide instruction.

Course Requirements and Assignments

SJSU classes are designed such that in order to be successful, it is expected that students will spend a minimum of forty-five hours for each unit of credit (normally three hours per unit per week), including preparing for class, participating in course activities, completing assignments, and so on. More details about student workload can be found in University Policy S12-3 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/S12-3.pdf>.

1) Weekly Reflections

10 reflections @ 5 points each = 50 points (14.3% of grade) [CLO 1-10]

Students will complete weekly reflections based on course readings, course material, and class discussion. Responses should not be a summary of the reading or class discussion, but rather a reflection on applying the information as a special educator in the classroom. Students are also required to respond to the reflections of two other students in class. The initial reflections are due by Thursday and the response to other reflections are due by Saturday.

2) In-class assignments

10 assignments = 100 points (28.6% of grade) [CLO 1-10]

Students will complete a variety of assignments in class, individually and in groups, including quick writes, quizzes, reflections, projects and analyses. There will be no make-ups for the missed assignments.

3) Functional Behavior Assessment IRIS Module

50 points (14.3% of grade) [CLO 10]

Each candidate will complete the Functional Behavior Assessment IRIS Module. Candidates will submit their responses to the final assessment in the module and include a Behavior Support Plan for Nigel based on the functional behavior assessment information.

Functional Behavior Assessment IRIS Module is due 11/28/16.

4) Professional Growth Project

50 points (14.3% of grade) [CLO 1-10]

Complete a self-evaluation on the “Best Practices Evaluation” after reviewing the description of each item on the “Best Practices Description” in class. Develop three objectives for improving your skills/knowledge/practices from three areas of the evaluation. Write a Contract for Professional Growth summarizing self-directed activities, and then write a summary of your progress at the end of the semester. One of the three areas should address instruction for English Learners.

Professional Growth Project is due 12/12/16.

5) Assessment Report

100 points (28.6% of grade) [CLO 1-10]

Each candidate will complete a Comprehensive Assessment for a student with moderate to severe disabilities. The comprehensive assessment should include an informal observation of the student, a family interview with MAPS and/or COACH, an ecological assessment with discrepancy analysis, and an assessment with a formal instrument. The written assessment report should include a summary of the student's strengths and challenges as well as recommendations for home, school, and community settings. Based on person-centered assessment results prioritize goal areas and write two IEP goals with short term objectives. Each candidate will submit a written assessment report and present their assessment to the class.

Assessment Report is due 12/19/16.

NOTE that University policy F69-24 at <http://www.sjsu.edu/senate/docs/F69-24.pdf> states that “Students should attend all meetings of their classes, not only because they are responsible for material discussed therein, but because active participation is frequently essential to insure maximum benefit for all members of the class.
