

The John Steinbeck Society of America

The John Steinbeck Society of America promotes further study of the author by sponsoring conferences and through its website (as.sjsu.edu/steinbeck), it encourages collegiality and professionalism within the Steinbeck community, and it furthers Steinbeck scholarship by sponsoring The Steinbeck Review, the premier journal for new and established Steinbeck scholars. The richly illustrated, peer-reviewed journal is published each spring and fall. It explores the life and works of John Steinbeck, containing scholarly articles, essays, notes, book and performance reviews, and contemporary references about the writer.
