V. AGENDA ITEMS

A. Flexible Spending Accounts Benefit Review
Debbie Gairaud, HR Director, noted that about a third of the Student Union, Inc. full-time employees are participating in the Flexible Spending Account benefit. Ms. Gairaud noted that the cost to the Student Union is $120 per month with a tax savings of $250. Ms. Gairaud noted that the Student Union anticipates higher enrollment for next year.

B. Staffing Update: Position (Three) Alignment
Tamsen Burke informed the Personnel Committee about three position updates for the operational needs of the Student Union, Inc. Ms. Burke noted that the SRAC Director position will be posting soon. Ms. Burke noted that currently Dominic Ackerman is serving as the interim SRAC Director. Ms. Burke noted that a priority for the Student Union, Inc. is student success and telling the Student Union’s story through our assessment efforts. In order to do this, Amy Guerra-Smith is being promoted to a role in student success and assessment. Ms. Burke noted that she and Human Resources are working on finalizing the position description. Lastly, Ms. Burke noted that she and Dr. Daniels have discussed adding an Associate Executive Director position to assist the Executive Director in the day-to-day operations but that there is still research to do before the corporation will post that position.

C. Discussion and Approval of Wellness Benefit
Tamsen Burke informed the Personnel Committee members that the Student Union currently has a Wellness Benefit that the Board approved many years ago. Ms. Burke, with the assistance of Debbie Gairaud the HR Director, explained the details of the existing wellness benefit noting that the current program encourages employees to come to work sick in order to get the payout at the end of the calendar year. Ms. Burke noted that she is in consultation with other auxiliaries, including the Associated Students, within the CSU to find out what their practices are. Ms. Burke noted that almost all the other auxiliaries have discontinued this benefit and have instituted a true wellness program. Ms. Burke indicated that she is working with the Leadership Team and Human Resources to create a true wellness program but is asking the Personnel Committee to consider making a recommendation that the Board approve the discontinuing of the existing Wellness Benefit.

Antonio Bustamante moved to approve the Personnel Committee recommendation that the Board approve the discontinuing of the existing Wellness Benefit.
Ellen Middaugh seconded the motion.
VOTE ON THE MOTION: 4-0-0 MOTION PASSED.

D. Review and Approval of Updated Personnel Committee Charter
The committee continued discussions about the current Personnel Committee Charter and agreed on the changes set at the December 2, 2019 meeting.
The committee discussed in detail about the benefits and challenges of having two full-time staff members and two student supervisor members on the Personnel Committee. The discussion resulted with the committee agreeing to have one full-time staff member and one student supervisor member on the Personnel Committee. A question was asked regarding the potential of staff having privy of personnel matters of their peers that are brought to the Personnel Committee. It was noted that sensitive personnel matters brought to the committee should be conducted in closed session and that only voting members are allowed in closed sessions. The Personnel Committee agreed that there should be one full-time staff member and one student supervisor member on the Personnel Committee. Lastly, a request was made to add a line at the bottom with the date of the Board’s approval of the revisions.

Antonio Bustamante moved to approve the Personnel Committee Charter with the revisions.
Yissel Reyna seconded the motion.

VOTE ON THE MOTION: 4-0-0 MOTION PASSED.

Antonio Bustamante asked for any objections to move the meeting to closed session. Seeing no objections, Mr. Bustamante noted that the meeting was now in closed session by unanimous consensus and asked all non-voting members to exit the room.
