   b. First Review Annual Budget and Assumptions
      Tamsen Burke presented the Finance Committee with the assumptions the Student Union, Inc. used to draft the budget request. Ms. Burke went on to describe the assumptions used which are:
      ● re-population of 70% of students on campus with 13,000-16,000 students taking on-campus and hybrid classes
      ● up to ⅔ of faculty and staff working on campus either full-time or hybrid schedule
      ● the county stays in the yellow tier
      ● no salary increases with the exception of exempt position salary adjustments to meet the CA Exempt Salary Minimum Wage requirement
      ● Fall 2021 operations and occupancy is based on 70% with consideration of density requirements for space/users
      ● Spring 2022 operations and programming is based on 100% operations
      ● No concerts or outside group reservations for the Event Center, but will be reviewed as SJSU Adapt Plan changes in phase 4.
      ● Fall 2021 and Spring 2022 Commencements will be considered in the FY 21/22 budget for in person graduations for the (7) colleges.
      Ms. Burke also noted additional services will impact the operations and budgets for the SU, Inc FY 21/22 budget including dining services, housing population numbers, and the ability of allowing outside groups space reservations, live events and concerts. Tamsen Burke noted high risk assumptions which will effect the budget align with the University’s efforts and include mechanical systems, cleaning practices, PPE, and other items related to returning to repopulating and preparing the spaces for the safest environments as possible.
      Ms. Burke explained to the Committee the Administrative and Program Controls used in determining the budgets, noting that ● Meetings - Conducted electronically wherever possible and
      ● Live Events & Performances
      ● Athletic Events, Commencements, and Special Events (Spring 2022) will follow recent sector guidance
      ● Allowed for attendees living with a region but with capacity/group size limitations
      ● Requires advanced reservation, assigned seating, in-seat concessions only, and controls to limit mixing especially when larger groups
The Finance Committee asked various questions regarding the budgets. Tamsen Burke and David Alves provided clarity and understanding of budget decision and impacts.
