V. DISCUSSION ITEMS
   A. Presentation of Proposed FY 21/22 Budget
   Tamsen Burke presented a few changes to the proposed requested budget for FY 2021-2022. Ms. Burke noted the Student Union received the preliminary cost allocations from the University Finance and Accounting office and the SUI made the necessary adjustments in the budget. Ms. Burke noted that adjustment is reflected in the Communications, Outside Agency, and Insurance categories. Tamsen Burke inquired if the cost allocations will increase based on prior years projections to actuals increasing. Mr. Faas indicated that at this time these are the numbers anticipated.
   Tamsen Burke also indicated another change in the budget is the realignment of the Event Center Audio Visual Tech Team to the SU Event Services office to create additional efficiencies for campus servicing.
   Tamsen Burke opened the floor for discussion and questions. The committee discussed several factors that affect the budget request, like enrollment numbers and intent to enroll numbers are up significantly.
   Cynthia Fernandez-Rios inquired from Charlie Faas if he had any concerns with the proposed budget. Charlie Faas responded that the budget isn’t supposed to be about the numbers but rather about the story the numbers are telling and requested to see a narrative to put the numbers in context for the value of the student money paid.

VII. ACTION ITEMS
   A. Approval of Finance Committee Recommendation to Approve the Proposed Budget for FY 21/22
