

Angie Dang
IRS Examination Group Manager
Internal Revenue Service

Angie Dang joined the IRS in 2001. Angie is extensively involved with teaching C-corporation and Flow-Through Entities, training and developing Revenue Agents, mentoring future IRS managers and teaching newly selected Managers.

Angie was a speaker at both the IRS-National Tax Forum and IRS Practitioner Liaison Meetings. She was involved with college recruiting, served as a career night panelist at Santa Clara University, volunteered at Small Business Assistance Day, and participated at the IRS Open House Initiative during filing season.

Angie holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Mathematics and is a licensed California CPA.