Susan began her career with the Internal Revenue Service in 1995 as a Tax Examiner at the Memphis Campus. She has served in increasingly responsible positions throughout the service where she has acquired a vast knowledge of various IRS processes. She currently serves as a Tax Policy Analyst for Small Business/Self Employed Campus Examination Headquarters. The Campus Exam policy team, Susan serves on supports the mission of addressing non-compliance through enforcement efforts, providing service through education, outreach and taxpayer burden reduction with the objective to help taxpayers comply with the tax laws and ensure that these laws are applied fairly to all.
