

Toni L.Lewis
Director, Multistate Tax Services
Deloitte Tax LLP
San Jose, California

Toni Lewis is the Practice Leader of our Multistate Tax Services practice in San Jose, California. She is also responsible for our Multistate Tax Merger's & Acquisition's practice for the firm's West Coast Practice, focusing on due diligence, transaction structuring and post merger integration. Toni brings over 27 years of experience in the area of multistate tax consulting. Toni specializes in multistate income, franchise and sales and use tax issues and tax structuring. She has broad industry experience and has served clients in the life sciences, manufacturing, retail/distribution, technology, and software industries. She leads the Multistate Tax Services Sector of our National Technology Industry Group. She is currently or has served as the Lead Multistate Tax Client Service provider on clients in the technology, life sciences, media, consumer products, automotive and oil and gas industries as well as several large private equity investors.

She received her BS in Accounting from Illinois State University and is a Certified Public Accountant in both California and Illinois. Toni is a member of the American Institute of CPAs and the California Society of CPA's. She has served as a speaker at various tax conferences and seminars including the California Society of CPA's, the National Multistate Tax Symposium, the Committee on State Taxation, the Tax Executives Institute and the Institute for Professionals in Taxation. She has authored numerous articles and has co-authored the BNA Multistate Portfolio "Income Taxes: Computation of State Taxable Income".