

Chief Tax Office

Unique in the tax technology industry, Vertex's Chief Tax Office (CTO) provides insight regarding the impact of tax regulations, policy, enforcement and emerging technology trends on global tax department operations. The Vertex CTO group consists of former tax executives from various Fortune 500 multinationals, who bring their in-house tax and industry expertise to Vertex's solution development, services and customer interactions. The CTO group understands the data management challenges for both transaction and income taxes as they relate to the functions of compliance, financial reporting, as well as planning and audit controversy.

Bernadette Pinamont, JD, CPA

Bernadette Pinamont is a Director in the Chief Tax Office at Vertex, Inc. She provides insight regarding in-house corporate tax department operations, technical tax development of the company's income tax solutions under Vertex® Enterprise, advises on various international tax matters for Vertex operations, and authors thought leadership for the company on various topics.

Prior to joining Vertex, Bernadette was Vice President Tax for Endo Pharmaceuticals Inc. Her 30-year tax career also includes the corporate tax departments of AstraZeneca, DuPont, Syngenta, Tyco Toys and, initially, EY. Bernadette's areas of expertise are domestic and international income tax, as well as transfer pricing for the pharmaceutical and manufacturing industries.

Bernadette is a graduate of Seton Hall University, from which she earned both a B.S. in Accounting, Summa Cum Laude, and her Juris Doctor. She is a licensed attorney and a CPA.