

San José State University
San José, California
ANNOUNCEMENT OF POSITION AVAILABILITY
Department of Biological Sciences
Subject to Budgetary Approval

Position: Lecturer

Rank: Part-time temporary

Salary: Commensurate with rank and experience.

Minimum Qualifications: Bachelor's degree or Master's degree in an area of biological sciences and a minimum of two years of teaching experience. Areas of particular interest include microbiology, anatomy and physiology, cell and molecular biology, and ecology and evolutionary biology. Good oral and written communication skills, and commitment to student learning are required. Candidates should demonstrate awareness of and sensitivity to the education goals of a multicultural population as might have been gained through training or other comparable experience.

Preferred Qualifications: Ph.D. in relevant field with prior teaching experience and evidence of performing research with a record of scholarly activities.

Responsibilities: Successful candidates are expected to teach effectively, develop class and lab materials, and provide assessment data for the courses they teach.

Application Procedures: Interested candidates should submit a letter of application, statement of teaching interest, and curriculum vitae via electronic format (PDF or MS Word version) to: bioassistant-group@sjsu.edu. The curriculum vitae must contain a description of courses taught related to subject matter, teaching evaluations (if available), and contact information of three references. Applications are accepted on a continual basis.

San José State University is California's oldest institution of public higher learning. The campus is located on the southern end of San Francisco Bay in downtown San José (Pop. 1,000,000), hub of the world-famous Silicon Valley high-technology research and development center. Many of California's most popular national, recreational, and cultural attractions are conveniently close. A member of the 23-campus CSU system, San José State University enrolls approximately 30,000 students, a significant percentage of whom are members of minority groups. The University is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty so our disciplines, students and the community can benefit from multiple ethnic and gender perspectives.

San José State University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, age, gender, gender identity/expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, marital status, veteran status, or disability. This policy applies to all San José State University students, faculty, and staff as well as University programs and activities. Reasonable accommodations are made for applicants with disabilities who self-disclose. Note that all San José State University employees are considered mandated reporters under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and are required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 as a condition of employment.

A background check (including a criminal records check) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

The latest San José State University Safety 101 Uniform Campus Crime and Security Report is available. You may request a copy of San José State University's annual safety report by contacting the University Police Department at (408) 924-2222 or by visiting the University Police Department website at (<http://www.sjsu.edu/police>.)