Course Description: Basic skills and structure of the language in the context of culture.

Spanish 1A is a 4-unit course designed for students who have never studied Spanish before. The course aims to enable student communication in the target language as quickly as possible. Therefore, instruction will be conducted almost exclusively in Spanish. Students are expected to participate in all class activities and complete homework assignments designed to develop reading and writing skills. Students will be evaluated according to their progress in the five areas: speaking, oral comprehension, reading, writing, and knowledge of the cultures that speak Spanish. Since priority is given to the development of students’ speaking and oral comprehension skills, in class participation is an essential component for succeeding and earning a good grade.

PARTICIPATION: Students will be graded on their efforts to use the target language, collaborate with classmates, in class assignments, homework assignments, and on whether they show evidence of having read the course material prior to coming to class. Student performance in class is assessed according to the development of the following: speaking, listening, writing, reading, and cultural appreciation, individually and in groups. Therefore, student presence in class is essential to success in this course. Students should always come prepared with their hard copy textbook, a notebook, and a pen or pencil. Students are expected to be ready and willing to interact with the instructor and fellow students during every session.

ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY: If an absence or lateness is inevitable, students are responsible for obtaining class notes and homework assignments from a classmate. Please do not email your instructor to ask if you missed something important.

Located in Clark Hall 206, the Media Center is open weekdays. Our equipment is available for on-site use exclusively for students taking at least one class in the Department of Foreign Languages. For more information, contact 408-924-4696. Learning Assistance Resource Center

The Learning Assistance Resource Center (LARC) is located in Room 600 in the Student Services Center. It is designed to assist students in the development of their full academic potential and to motivate them to become self-directed learners. The center provides support services, such as skills assessment, individual or group tutorials, subject advising, learning assistance, summer academic preparation and basic skills development. The LARC website is located at <http://www.sjsu.edu/larc/>.

Peer Mentor Center

The Peer Mentor Center is located on the 1st floor of Clark Hall in the Academic Success Center. The Peer Mentor Center is staffed with Peer Mentors who excel in helping students manage university life, tackling problems that range from academic challenges to interpersonal struggles. Peer Mentor services are free and available on a drop –in basis, no reservation required. The Peer Mentor Center website is located at <http://www.sjsu.edu/muse/peermentor/>

University Policies

A few suggestions for success in this class:

- Understand that language courses are demanding in a different way from other courses and often require more of your time than you would expect. This class requires 12 hours a week.
- Practice every day. Do not leave online homework for the night before class; you will not be able to complete it in time. SJSU expects that you dedicate 12hours to this class per week. We meet for 3 hours and 20 min a week. You are responsible for the remaining 8 hours and 40 minutes, which should include your online homework, pre-reading for class, completing any other assignments, practicing your vocabulary, and memorizing grammar rules.
- Participate in class. Come to class prepared so that you can ask questions. Bring your textbook to class. Be open to working with others and using the language.
- Study every day as though you had a quiz in every class. In a language class, studying means memorizing vocabulary and grammar rules and using them in practice activities. Writing them down and making your own flash cards is the best way to memorize this type of material. Staring at the textbook page does not ensure learning. In addition to the My Spanish Lab activities assigned by your instructor, there are many more activities online that you can use to practice. Take advantage of the opportunity.

Course Calendar

- This calendar is subject to change as the semester progresses to better meet the needs of the class as whole. You are responsible for announcements made in class and on Canvas
- Material assigned is due on that day. You must read the sections outlined in this course calendar BEFORE they are discussed in class. Your instructor will assume that you are familiar with the material to be practiced on any given day in class.
