Course Description

Continuation of Spanish 1B. Preparation for advanced courses in the language. In this course students will continue to augment their vocabulary base, refine grammatical structures and engage in critical thinking through a variety of tasks, activities and assignments. Students will be introduced to authentic literary works and other forms of cultural production and it is expected that students will comprehend these within a socio-historical and political context as well. Throughout the semester but especially at the end of the semester as part of the summative assessment, students will be evaluated on the basis of their ability to demonstrate in tests and writing assignments a command of these concepts. This course will be conducted entirely in Spanish.

Required Texts/Readings

Textbook

Bretz, Dvorak, Kirschner, .. (et al.) !Avance! Intermediate Spanish. Third Edition. New York: McGraw-Hill, 2013. Available at the SJSU Spartan Bookstore.

Other Readings

Reader for SPANISH 25A. Available at Maple Press. 330 S 10th St #200, San Jose, CA 95112, Phone: (408) 297-1000. This is the same reader used by Dr. Sempere's Spanish 25A class.

Recommended: An English-Spanish, Spanish-English Dictionary.

Course Requirements and Assignments:

Tests

During the semester, we will study the first six units of !Avance! (chapters 1-6) and we will have two tests (chapters 1-2, 3-4) and chapters 5-6 in the final exam. No make-up tests will be given.

Reader

We will read the literary and cultural selections in the Reader, and discuss them in class.

The Final Exam will be on Tuesday, May 22 at 2:45-5:00PM in CL 218

The final exam will include chapters 5 and 6 of the textbook and the material from the Reader covered in class.

Presentations

Each student will deliver a 10 minute oral presentation on a topic related to Hispanic culture, such as a Spanish speaking country. The presentations will be evaluated as follows: Organization, time management, clarity of exposition and ability to answer questions. A summary and a bibliography of the sources consulted will be turned in the day of the presentation.

Compositions

They will be assigned increasing in complexity and scope as the semester advances.

Conversations

Weekly situational dialogs covering conversational and cultural skills.

Peer Connections

Peer Connections, a campus-wide resource for mentoring and tutoring, strives to inspire students to develop their potential as independent learners while they learn to successfully navigate through their university experience. You are encouraged to take advantage of their services which include course-content based tutoring, enhanced study and time management skills, more effective critical thinking strategies, decision making and problem-solving abilities, and campus resource referrals.

In addition to offering small group, individual, and drop-in tutoring for a number of undergraduate courses, consultation with mentors is available on a drop-in or by appointment basis. Workshops are offered on a wide variety of topics including time management, preparing for the Writing Skills Test (WST), improving your study skills, surviving your first semester at SJSU, and other related topics. A computer lab and study space are also available for student use in Room 600 of Student Services Center (SSC).

Peer Connections is located in three locations: SSC, Room 600 (10th Street Garage on the corner of 10th and San Fernando Street), at the 1st floor entrance of Clark Hall in the Academic Success Center, and in the Spartan Study Hub in Campus Village Housing Building B. Visit <http://peerconnections.sjsu.edu/> for more information.

*You should register at the beginning of the semester. Then, you are allowed to make appointments with tutors

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS)

The SJSU Counseling and Psychological Services is located in the Student Wellness Center, third floor Room 300B (corner of 7th and San Carlos St.) Professional psychologists, social workers, and counselors are available to provide consultations on issues of student mental health, campus climate or psychological and academic issues on an individual, couple, or group basis. To schedule an appointment or learn more information, visit:

<http://www.sjsu.edu/counseling/>

Food Resources

There are many resources on and off campus to supplement your food supply for free should you experience any food insecurities. Please visit:

<http://www.sjsu.edu/wellness/foodresources/>

Click the menu bar to the right to find on and off campus resources.

No student should ever have to skip meals due to cost. To stay alert and focused on your studies, eat at least 3 times a day. The various Food Shelves at different campus locations, and the monthly Just In Time program are here for SJSU students' needs. Please navigate the above link for specific information about these food sources and many others available to you.
